

K-love radio station is very important to me, my husband, my two married sons , their wives and my grandchildren. We listen daily at home and in our cars. It is so very uplifting and positive. It's a refreshing message in our sometimes negative, cut throat world. My young grandchildren and we adults know, love and sing the songs.